

Law on Amendments to the Law on Trademarks

("Official Gazette of Montenegro", No. 40/16)

Article 1

In the Law on Trademarks ("Official Gazette of Montenegro", No. 72/10, 44/12 and 18/14) in Article 10, paragraph 2, the introductory sentence shall be amended to read as follows:

"The trademark holder shall be entitled to prevent other persons from using in the course of trade without his consent the following:"

In item 1 the words "earlier trademark" shall be replaced by the word "trademark".

Item 2 shall be amended to read as follows:

“any sign where, because of its identity with, or similarity to the trademark and the identity or similarity of the goods or services covered by the trademark and the sign, there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public which includes the likelihood of association between the sign and the trade mark.”

Article 2

In Article 11, after paragraph 2 a new paragraph shall be added to read as follows:

“Provision of paragraph 1 of this Article and Article 10 paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Law shall not affect provisions relating to the protection against the use of a sign other than for the purposes of distinguishing goods or services, where use of that sign without due cause takes unfair advantage of, or is detrimental to, the distinctive character or the repute of the trademark.”

Article 3

In Article 14, paragraph 1 item 2 after the word “production” the words: “of goods or of rendering of the service” shall be inserted.

Article 4

In Article 15, paragraph 1 after the word “reasons” the words: “for the trademark holder to oppose further commercialisation of the goods” shall be inserted.

Paragraph 2 shall be amended to read as follows:

“Putting on the market of goods that are marked with a trademark by the trademark holder or with his/her explicit consent, in the territory of the European Union or countries that are Parties to the Agreement on European Economic Area, shall exhaust the exclusive rights arising from the trademark in relation to those goods, unless there are legitimate reasons for the trademark holder to oppose further commercialisation of the goods, based on which the trademark holder retains the exclusive rights arising from the trademark.”

Article 5

In Article 16 at the end of paragraph 2, the full stop shall be deleted and added the following words "or to oppose its use."

Article 6

In Article 23, paragraph 3 is amended and shall read:

"The applicant proves the Union Priority Right with the submission of a certificate of priority right issued by the competent authority of a Member State of the Paris Union or Member State of the World Trade Organization and the translation of that certificate to the Montenegrin language, which is certified by a court interpreter."

After paragraph 3, a new paragraph shall be added to read as follows:

"The applicant is required to submit a certificate and a translation of the certificate referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article no later than three months from the date of filing of the request for the recognition of the Union Priority Right."

Article 7

In Article 31, paragraph 2 shall be amended to read as follows:

"An opposition referred to in paragraph 1 of the present Article may be filed by the holder of the earlier trademark or the licensee who has the approval of the trademark holder and by the holder of the right to the personal name, portrait, copyright or other industrial property rights from Article 8 paragraph 2 of this law."

Article 8

In Article 35 after paragraph 6 two new paragraphs shall be added to read as follows:

"The competent authority may issue a trademark certificate, at the request of the right holder, along with proof of the payment of the prescribed administrative fee.
