

DRAFT AMENDMENT OF REGULATION 27A, FOOD REGULATIONS 1985

To replace Regulation 27A, Food Regulations 1985: Prohibited feeding bottles with Regulation 27A, Food Regulations 1985: Feeding bottles and teats with the new inclusion of subregulations as follows:

New Subregulation 27A (1), (5), (6):

- (1) For the purpose of these Regulations-
 - (a) feeding bottle refers to a container used specifically for storing milk or other liquid for consumption by infants and children, which consist of bottle, lid, teat, and teat cover, and it shall include container of other form made intentionally to be used in the same manner as that of feeding bottle;
 - (b) teat refers to a substitute nipple that when attached to a container holding a fluid permits a baby to obtain the fluid from the container by sucking;
- (5) In addition to subregulation 27(2), feeding bottles or teats shall be clearly labelled with instructions for proper cleaning and sterilization of the product and the following particulars;
 - (a) for feeding bottles;
 - (i) scale mark; and
 - (ii) the words “PENGUNAAN BOTOL SUSU BOLEH MENJEJAS PENYUSUAN SUSU IBU” in not less than 10 point size and in bold, on the front or main panel of the outer package for a packaging size equivalent to that of a 250 ml feeding bottle. Where the size of the feeding bottle is increased, the size of lettering shall be increased proportionately.
 - (b) for teats to be sold separately from feeding bottles;
 - (i) shelf life of the teat; and
 - (ii) the words “PENGUNAAN PUTING SUSU BOLEH MENJEJAS PENYUSUAN SUSU IBU” in not less than 10 point size and bold, on the front or main panel of the outer package. Where the teat is singly packed, smaller font size of not less than 4 point maybe used.
- (6) Feeding bottles or teats to be sold separately from feeding bottle shall not contain-
 - (a) on its label any picture, graphic or text which suggest similarity of the product with a mother’s breast, pictures or graphic of infants or parts of infants or any other persons; and
 - (b) any descriptive matter appearing on or attached to or supplied with it any information on the promotion or advertisement of another product.