TO SAFEGUARD MEASURES

UGANDA

The following communication, dated 16 August 1996, has been received from the Permanent Mission of Uganda.

The legislation on Safeguards has been suspended since 1993. With the coming into being of the PTA Treaty and thereafter the COMESA Agreement within the region, the Minister of Finance was to exercise "RESIDUAL POWERS"; to impose - "Surcharge", "Excise Duty" or any nominal "levy" to deter, to regulate and safeguard economic stability in the region on specific commodities/products.
