On 14 March 2011, the 4th Session of the 11th National People's Congress (NPC) adopted the 12th Five-Year Plan for National Economic and Social Development of the People's Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as "the 12th Five-Year Plan"). The 12th Five-Year Plan is available at both the websites of the NPC (<http://www.npc.gov.cn>) and the Central People's Government (<http://www.gov.cn>).

The draft plan for each year's national economic and social development of China and the report on the implementation of the previous year's plan for national economic and social development are subject to review and approval by the annual session of the National People's Congress convened at the beginning of that year. These draft plans and reports on implementation are available at the website of the NPC (<http://www.npc.gov.cn>).

The relevant plans of provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government are available at the websites of corresponding local governments. For information about the websites of local governments, please refer to the information provided by China to the General Council in 2009 in accordance with the Annex 1A of the Protocol on the Accession of the People's Republic of China.

Besides, relevant authorities of the Chinese Government are now compiling the 12th Five-Year Plans of provinces, autonomous regions and municipalities directly under the Central Government, and will have them published after completion of the compiling work.

Industrial policies or programmes on specific sectors if issued, will be available from the website of the Central People's Government (<http://www.gov.cn>), the website of National Development and Reform Commission (<http://www.ndrc.gov.cn>) and the website of the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology (<http://www.miit.gov.cn>).
