Regulation (2006:10)
of January 12, 2006,
Amending the International Copyright Regulation (1994:193)

The Government prescribes that in the International Copyright Regulation (1994:193) shall be inserted two new Sections, numbered 27 and 28, and immediately before Section 27 a new Heading, reading as follows.

Remuneration Relating to the Manufacture and Importation of Material Supports for the Recording of Sounds and Images

Section 27. The provisions of Articles 26 k - 26 m of the Copyright Act shall, on the conditions prescribed in the second Paragraph, apply to

1. works of authors who are nationals of, or have their habitual residence in, a country other than Sweden, and
2. cinematographic works whose producer has his headquarters or habitual residence in a country other than Sweden.

The provisions of the first Paragraph apply only if the other country has established a remuneration system relating to material supports on which sounds or moving images may be recorded that provides a corresponding possibility to remuneration for Swedish right-owners. They shall not apply if the term of protection for the work has expired in the country of origin of the right-owner.

Section 28. The provisions of Articles 45 and 46 of the Copyright Act, in so far as they refer to Articles 26 k - 26 m of the same Act, shall, on the conditions prescribed in the second Paragraph, apply to

1. performances by persons who are nationals of a country other than Sweden, and
2. recordings of sounds or moving images whose producer is a national of, or has habitual residence in, a country other than Sweden or is a legal entity from another country.

The provisions of the first Paragraph apply only if the other country has established a remuneration system relating to material supports on which sounds or moving images may be recorded that provides a corresponding possibility to remuneration for Swedish right-owners. They shall not apply if the term of protection for the performance or the recording has expired in the country of origin of the right-owner.

This Regulation enters into force on February 16, 2006.
