CHINA – ANTI-DUMPING AND COUNTERVAILING DUTY MEASURES ON WINE FROM AUSTRALIA*COMMUNICATION FROM THE PANEL

The following communication, dated 6 October 2022, was received from the Chairman of the Panel with the request that it be circulated to the Dispute Settlement Body (DSB).

Article 12.8 of the Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes (DSU) provides that the period in which a panel shall conduct its examination, from the date that the composition and terms of reference of the panel have been agreed upon until the date the final report is issued to the parties to the dispute, shall, as a general rule, not exceed six months.

Article 12.9 of the DSU provides that, when a panel considers that it cannot issue its report within six months, it shall inform the Dispute Settlement Body (DSB) in writing accordingly and indicate the reasons, together with an estimate of the period within which it will issue its report.

The Panel in China – Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Duty Measures on Wine from Australia (DS602) was established by the DSB on 26 October 2021 and composed on 4 March 2022.

On 31 August 2022, the Panel communicated to the DSB that the parties had requested, and the Panel had granted, considerable extensions to the timetable, and that the Panel had received particularly voluminous submissions from the parties, on a wide range of issues. The Panel therefore communicated to the DSB that it did not expect to issue its final report to the parties before the end of 2022 at the earliest. The Panel hereby informs the DSB that it does not expect to issue its final report to the parties before mid-2023.

The report will only be available to the public once it is circulated to the Members in all three working languages of the WTO. The date of circulation depends on completion of translation and the Panel is not in a position to provide an estimated circulation date at this time.

I would be grateful if you would circulate this letter to the DSB.
