⁵ The Agreement on the Withdrawal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from the European Union and the European Atomic Energy Community of 19 October 2019 provides that, following the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union, save for certain limited exceptions, European Union law applies to and in the United Kingdom until the end of a time-limited transition period. During the transition period, the European Union's trade defence regulations and measures continue to apply to and in the United Kingdom, and the Trade Remedies Investigations Directorate is currently the United Kingdom's competent authority only for the purposes of conducting reviews of certain existing EU trade defence measures under Part 12 of the Trade Remedies (Dumping and Subsidisation) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 (as amended by the Trade Remedies (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019) until Members are notified otherwise. Any outcome of such reviews will not be implemented until the transition period has ended.
