²⁷ Market conditions have changed because of a significant reduction in both the output of the Goods by Ukrainian producers and in the export of these Goods to the United Kingdom from Ukraine. As a consequence of the change in market conditions, the injury to UK industry would be unlikely to recur if the application of the anti-dumping amount is suspended.

¹ On 31 December 2020, when the agreed transition period with the European Union ended, the definitive trade remedy measures imposed by the European Union on behalf of the United Kingdom that the United Kingdom determined should be retained after the end of the transition period, continued to apply in the United Kingdom, as detailed in this table of definitive anti-dumping measures in force. Under the terms of the Northern Ireland Protocol, measures terminated for the whole of the United Kingdom will continue to apply to certain imports into Northern Ireland. For the date of original imposition, please refer to the European Union's ID number in respect of each measure.
