1 INCOME SUPPORT PROGRAMMES

1.1 Refinancing of Mortgage Loans etc. in Agricultural Holdings

1. Title of programme in English. Title of programme in Danish

Refinancing of mortgage loans etc. in agricultural holdings.
Refinansieringsordningen for landbruget.

2. Period covered by the notification

	2010	2011	2012
	Mio. DKK
EU-refunds	0.0	0.0	0.0
National financed	38,6	37,1	34,8

3. Policy objective and/or purpose of the subsidy

To ease the financing costs for farmers by rescheduling existing loans to new long-term low interest loans.

4. Background and authority for the subsidy (including identification of the legislation under which it is granted)

Act No. 372 of 11 July 1988.

5. Form of the subsidy (i.e. grant, loan, tax concessions, etc.)

New low-interest mortgage loans (approximately 2/3 of the interest of ordinary mortgage loans) or indexed loans.

6. To whom and how the subsidy is provided (whether to producers, to exporters, or others; through what mechanism; whether a fixed or fluctuating amount per unit; if the latter, how determined)

The subsidy corresponds to 15%, 25% or 30% of the annual indexation of the loan, depending on the applicant's debt percentage at the time of application.

7. Subsidy per unit, or in cases where this is not possible, the total amount or the annual amount budgeted for that subsidy (indicating, if possible, the average subsidy per unit in the previous year). Where provision of per unit subsidy information (for the year covered by the notification, for the previous year, or both) is not possible, a full explanation

Estimates are not available.

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading). In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading.

Estimates are not available.

9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement

Estimates are not available. Last date for application: 15 December 1989.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):

- (a) For the three most recent years for which statistics are available;
- (b) For a previous representative year, which, where possible and meaningful, should be the latest year preceding the introduction of the subsidy or preceding the last major change in the subsidy.

The programme has no effects on trade.

2 STRUCTURAL PROGRAMMES

2.1 Young Farmers' Scheme

1. Title of programme in English. Title of programme in Danish

Young Farmers' Scheme.

Yngre Jordbruger ordningen.

2. Period covered by the notification

	Mio. DKK
EU-refunds	1.3	0.2	0.0
National financed	1.4	0.3	0.0

3.-7. To encourage and ease the generational transition in the agricultural sector. Legal basis: Act No. 606 of 6 June 2000. The State warrants a loan of a maximum amount of DKK 500.000 depending on the value of the holding. Interests and repayment are whole or in part paid by the State during the first seven years of its term. To be eligible, the applicant must be below 40 years of age, start in agriculture as main occupation and fulfil certain conditions regarding education and capital. FFLS 24.24.05.10

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading). In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading

See the above heading.

9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement

Permanent scheme. Term of loans 20 years. Direct aid seven years.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):

- a) For the three most recent years for which statistics are available;
- b) For a previous representative year, which, where possible and meaningful, should be the latest year preceding the introduction of the subsidy or preceding the last major change in the subsidy.

Information on this subject is not available.

2.2 Reparcelling

1. Title of programme in English. Title of programme in Danish

Reparcelling.
Jordfordeling.

2. Period covered by the notification

	2010	2011	2012
	Mio. DKK
EU-refunds	0.5	0.4	0.1
National financed	0.7	0.6	0.1

- 3.-7. The aim is to improve rounding off, structure, nature or environmental conditioning for the holdings. Legal basis: Act No. 338 of 17 May 2000. Council Regulation (EC) No. 1257/1999. The State subsidizes the projects 100%. FFL$ 24.23.03.55

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading). In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading.

See the above heading.

9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement

Period of present programme: 2000 - 2006.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):

- For the three most recent years for which statistics are available;
- For a previous representative year, which, where possible and meaningful, should be the latest year preceding the introduction of the subsidy or preceding the last major change in the subsidy.

Information on this subject is not available.

3 ENVIRONMENTAL PROGRAMMES

3.1 Guarantee for Loans for Agricultural Investments with the Aim of Protecting and Improving the Environment

1. Title of programme in English. Title of programme in Danish

The aim of the scientific policy advice is to promote food, agricultural and fisheries policies, regulation and development based on scientific knowledge with due consideration to a sustainable utilisation and management and the terrestrial and aquatic resources. Priority is placed on the issues of environment, food quality, food safety, plant and animal health and animal welfare. The advice is based on research carried out at universities.

In 2007 the recipient Government Research Institutes was merged with Danish universities. The universities are now the sole recipients of the grant.

4. Background and authority for the subsidy (including identification of the legislation under which it is granted)

Annual estimates on the Finance Act § 24.33.03.

5. Form of the subsidy (i.e. grant, loan, tax concessions, etc.)

Grant.

6. To whom and how the subsidy is provided (whether to producers, to exporters, or others; through what mechanism; whether a fixed or fluctuating amount per unit; if the latter, how determined.

Specific universities through annual estimates.

7. Subsidy per unit, or in cases where this is not possible, the total amount or the annual amount budgeted for that subsidy (indicating, if possible, the average subsidy per unit in the previous year). Where provision of per unit subsidy information (for the year covered by the notification, for the previous year, or both) is not possible, a full explanation

There is no relationship between the grant and production units.

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading). In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading.
9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement

Permanent based on annual estimates.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):
- a) For the three most recent years for which statistics are available;
 - b) For a previous representative year, which, where possible and meaningful, should be the latest year preceding the introduction of the subsidy or preceding the last major change in the subsidy.

3.-7. To improve the development of specific rural areas by means of subsidising and activating local action groups and local initiatives on a bottom up basis.

Legal basis: Council Regulation (EC) 1260/1999. Act No. 338 of 17 May 2000.

It is a condition for support that the project is situated in designated rural areas and contributes to realize a local development plan. FFL§ 24.23.15.65.

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading). In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading

See the above heading.

9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement

Period of present programme: 2000 - 2006.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):

- a) For the three most recent years for which statistics are available;
- b) For a previous representative year, which, where possible and meaningful, should be the latest year preceding the introduction of the subsidy or preceding the last major change in the subsidy.

EU-refunds	41.6	110.8	142.6
National financed	16.7	22.7	36.4

3.-7. The purpose of the support scheme is to promote sustainable agricultural enterprises and forest holdings through the development and application of new technologies, while also reducing undesirable effects on the surrounding society. Environmentally efficient technologies represent a growth area with considerable employment and export potential. The promotion of and support for knowledge exchange and incentives for using new efficient technologies to overcome environmental problems and initiate new production can help the agricultural, forestry and food sectors to remain competitive.

Legal basis: Act No. 316 of 31 March 2007 (Rural Development Programme).

Form of the subsidy: Grant. FFL§ 24.23.03.12.

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading). In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading

See the above heading.

9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement

Period of present programme: 2007 - 2013.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):

National financed	-	-	0.6

3. Policy objective and/or purpose of the subsidy

The purpose is to promote biogas production. Agriculture serving as an energy provider has a positive impact on green accounts. The government will ensure the best conditions for the further development of agriculture's role as an energy provider. With the initiatives presented in Green Growth concerning biogas and combustion of manure by 2020, the Government expects energy usage to have increased from 5% of farm yard manure in 2008 to 50% in 2020.

4. Background and authority for the subsidy (including identification of the legislation under which it is granted)

Act. no. 293 of 27. March 2012. On the Danish Finance Act §24.23.03.19.

5. Form of the subsidy (i.e. grant, loan, tax concessions, etc.)

Grant.

6. To whom and how the subsidy is provided (whether to producers, to exporters, or others; through what mechanism; whether a fixed or fluctuating amount per unit; if the latter, how determined)

Owners of or members of a farm household (on farm facilities) or enterprises and cooperatives outside agriculture (off farm facilities; common plants). Up to 30% of the eligible expenses can be covered.

7. Subsidy per unit, or in cases where this is not possible, the total amount or the annual amount budgeted for that subsidy (indicating, if possible, the average subsidy per unit in the previous year). Where provision of per unit subsidy information (for the year covered by the notification, for the previous year, or both) is not possible, a full explanation

Total budget for biogas Plants in the years 2010-2012 is 285 mio. DKK. There is no data available on previous payments as most payments will be made in 2014-15.

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading). In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading.

See the above heading.

9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement

Period of present programme: 2007 - 2013. The biogas programme started in 2010 and the last application round was in 2012.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):

(a) For the three most recent years for which statistics are available;

- 3.-7. The support scheme facilitates the investments in and use of new processes and new technology within unprocessed agricultural products.

The purpose of the support scheme is, against the background of increased competition, to promote higher productivity and valuable company growth. The purpose is two-fold: To promote the development of competitive enterprises within the food sector whilst satisfying environmental considerations, and to promote innovation and development within the sector as a whole, in order to retain and develop jobs and economic activity in rural areas.

Legal basis: Act No. 316 of 31 March 2007 (Rural Development Programme).

Form of the subsidy: Grant.

FFL§ 24.23.03.15.

8. 3.-7. The purpose of the support scheme is to protect the aquatic environment, to protect and improve ecosystem and biotope conditions on agricultural land and to promote organic agricultural production. The scheme consists of two sub-schemes (can be combined for the same piece of land).

Conversion to organic agricultural production

Support is given for conversion to organic farming as an annual area subsidy at a fixed support rate per hectare for five years. The farmer's costs in converting to organic farming are highest during the first two years of the conversion period. The support rate per year is therefore set at a higher level for the first two years than in the last three years.

Extensive production on agricultural land

Support is given for extensive farming as an annual area subsidy at a fixed support rate per hectare for five years. Applicants must either comply with the rules for organic agricultural production or undertake not to use plant protection products and to limit the use of nitrogen. Another requirement is for fertilizer plans and fertilizer accounts to be prepared.

Legal basis: Act No. 316 of 31 March 2007 (Rural Development Programme).

Form of the subsidy: Grant.

3.-7. The purpose of the support scheme is to protect the aquatic environment by reducing nitrogen and phosphorus leaching into the aquatic environment and to reduce the use of plant protection products. A further purpose is to protect and improve ecosystem and biotope conditions in agricultural and natural areas.

Support is given for the conservation of pasture and natural areas in connection with grazing or cutting in areas that are designated in accordance with specific guidelines. Support is given as an annual area subsidy in accordance with five-year agreements and fixed support rates. The support can be targeted at special geographic areas or projects that cover large, geographically contiguous grasslands or natural areas.

5-7. The policy objective of the support scheme is to sustain the population on the aforementioned 27 islands. Although the primary objective of the subsidy is to preserve existing and establish new workplaces, a wide range of projects and activities are supported. The subsidy is mainly awarded to projects intending to establish or expand existing production-, processing-, service-, and tourism-related businesses, cultural activities, and projects sustaining social life in the island communities (e.g. restoration of village halls). Anyone, including local authorities, can apply for the subsidy. The conditions for support are set forth in application-guidelines issued bi-annually by the Ministry of Housing, Urban, and Rural Affairs. The subsidy can be awarded as either a grant or interest-free loan. Loans are given to private applicants, and businesses, which are deemed capable of profiting from the investments made using the funds.

8. For the information cited in items 3 to 7 above, the notification does not necessarily have to have an independent heading corresponding to each item, and may provide information on multiple items in one heading (e.g. provide information on items 3 and 4 under one heading. In this case, the notification must clearly specify what items are covered by which heading.

See the above heading.

9. Duration of the subsidy and/or any other time-limits attached to it, including date of inception/commencement.

Permanent scheme. Loans are awarded as interest-free 10 year loans, which are installment free for the initial three years. Grants are to be used in line with the conditions for support, generally within a project period of one year.

10. Statistical data permitting an assessment of the trade effects of the subsidy. The specific nature and scope of such statistics is left to the judgement of the notifying Member. To the extent possible, relevant and/or determinable, however, it is desirable that such information include statistics of production, consumption, imports and exports of the subsidized product(s) or sector(s):

- a) For the three most recent years for which statistics are available;
- b) For a previous representative year, which, where possible and meaningful, should be the latest year preceding the introduction of the subsidy or preceding the last major change in the subsidy.
