RESUMEN DE LAS RESTRICCIONES A LA EXPORTACIÓN Y LAS FACILIDADES COMERCIALES EN RELACIÓN
CON LA PANDEMIA DE COVID-19

INFORME DE LA SECRETARÍA¹

Revisión

1 INTRODUCCIÓN

1. En su reunión del 11 de octubre de 2021, el Comité pidió a la Secretaría que preparara una segunda revisión del informe en el que se resumen las restricciones a la exportación y las facilidades comerciales² adoptadas por los Miembros en relación con la pandemia de COVID-19.

2. El presente informe recopila y resume la información pertinente sobre las prohibiciones y restricciones a la exportación notificadas por los Miembros en el marco de la Decisión sobre el procedimiento de notificación de restricciones cuantitativas de 2012³ (Decisión sobre las restricciones cuantitativas), las comunicaciones notificadas por los Miembros al Comité que contenían información sobre las facilidades comerciales, así como otras medidas adoptadas por los Miembros de la OMC que habían sido recopiladas en el marco del ejercicio de vigilancia del comercio de la OMC y figuraban en el documento "COVID-19: Medidas que afectan al comercio de mercancías".⁴

3. En esta revisión se tiene en cuenta toda la información disponible al 25 de marzo de 2022. En los anexos 1 y 2 se ofrece una visión general de los principales elementos de las restricciones y prohibiciones a la exportación y de las facilidades comerciales, respectivamente. Por otro lado, la lista completa de las notificaciones y comunicaciones al Comité que se han analizado en el presente informe figura en el documento G/MA/W/157/Rev.4.

2 PROHIBICIONES Y RESTRICCIONES A LA EXPORTACIÓN

4. A 25 de marzo de 2022, los Miembros han adoptado un total de 98 medidas de prohibición o restricción de las exportaciones como consecuencia de la pandemia de COVID-19, que bien se han notificado formalmente como restricción cuantitativa o han sido registradas en el ejercicio de vigilancia del comercio de la OMC. De ellas, 68 medidas han sido notificadas por 35 Miembros⁵ al Comité de Acceso a los Mercados de conformidad con la Decisión sobre las restricciones cuantitativas. De acuerdo con el ejercicio de vigilancia del comercio, 19 Miembros han introducido 30 medidas adicionales. Hasta la fecha de este informe, esas medidas no se han notificado con arreglo a la Decisión sobre las restricciones cuantitativas.

² En este informe, se ha utilizado la expresión "facilidades comerciales" a fin de distinguir las medidas de facilitación del comercio de las medidas comprendidas en el ámbito del Acuerdo sobre Facilitación del Comercio.

⁴ https://www.wto.org/spanish/tratop_s/covid19_s/trade_related_goods_measure_s.htm.

⁵ La Unión Europea se cuenta como un solo Miembro.

5. En el anexo 1 se ofrece un resumen de los distintos elementos de esas prohibiciones y restricciones a las exportaciones. A fin de facilitar el análisis de esas medidas y permitir su comparación, se han normalizado algunos de sus elementos (por ejemplo, el tipo de medida, los productos abarcados, la justificación en el marco de la OMC, etc.). A los efectos del presente informe, una medida se cuenta individualmente siempre que pueda distinguirse claramente de otra medida (por ejemplo, si hay dos instrumentos jurídicos nacionales claramente diferenciados). La prórroga, modificación o terminación de una medida original no se cuenta como una nueva medida. Las notificaciones de restricciones cuantitativas tienen un formato estructurado y, por tanto, la información que se obtiene de ellas es comparable en la mayoría de los casos. Esa comparabilidad es ligeramente menor en el caso de la información obtenida en el marco del ejercicio de vigilancia del comercio y, por tanto, la definición de las medidas que se han extraído de esa fuente podría variar en cuanto a su alcance, así como la información sobre las modificaciones y prórrogas.

2.1 Tipos de medidas

6. La mayor parte de las 98 medidas de restricción de las exportaciones introducidas por los Miembros en respuesta a la COVID-19 ha adoptado la forma de prohibiciones totales de las exportaciones (el 36%), a las que siguen las restricciones a la exportación en forma de regímenes de licencias de exportación no automáticas (el 18%) y las prohibiciones condicionales (el 15%).⁶ Las restricciones a la exportación mencionadas en el contexto del ejercicio de vigilancia del comercio, para las que no existen categorías de medidas normalizadas, representan el 29% de todas las medidas. Se han adoptado dos medidas en forma de contingente global para las exportaciones. Véase el gráfico 1.

2.2 Fechas de introducción de las medidas

7. Los Miembros introdujeron la gran mayoría de las medidas de prohibición y restricción de las exportaciones entre enero y abril de 2020 (67 de las 98 medidas), período que coincide con la declaración de pandemia por la Organización Mundial de la Salud (11 de marzo de 2020) y con los consiguientes confinamientos y otras medidas sanitarias impuestas por los Miembros en respuesta a la COVID-19. Según se constata, desde julio de 2020 solo se introdujeron 14 nuevas medidas de restricción de las exportaciones. Diez medidas no contienen información sobre la entrada en vigor o tienen varias fechas de inicio de las medidas. Véase el gráfico 2.

⁶ Los tipos de medidas se basan en la lista que figura en el anexo 2 de la Decisión sobre las restricciones cuantitativas, G/L/59/Rev.1. Véase el anexo 3.

Gráfico 2. Prohibiciones o restricciones a la exportación en respuesta a la COVID 19, fechas de introducción de las medidas

2.3 Duración de las medidas

8. Para gran parte de las medidas de restricción de las exportaciones adoptadas por los Miembros no se proporciona información completa sobre su duración. En el caso de las 98 medidas del conjunto de datos, en 33 no hay ninguna indicación sobre la duración prevista o el Miembro en cuestión no presentó ninguna comunicación posterior que confirmara la expiración o la interrupción de la medida. En el caso de las 65 medidas de las que se dispone de información, la mayoría de las restricciones estuvo vigente menos de 90 días (es decir, menos de tres meses), seguido por 16 medidas que estuvieron vigentes entre 181 y 270 días. Véase el gráfico 3.

2.4 Evolución del número de medidas en vigor, por fecha

9. A partir de la información sobre la fecha de introducción de las medidas (sección 2.2) y su duración (sección 2.3), se puede hacer un seguimiento del número de medidas que estaban en vigor en una fecha determinada y su evolución. La información disponible indica que en el punto máximo de la pandemia, a finales de abril de 2020, estaban en vigor 71 medidas de restricción de las exportaciones, cifra que posteriormente fue disminuyendo de manera constante. A fecha de febrero de 2022, casi dos años después del máximo alcanzado, parecen seguir en vigor 32 medidas de restricción de las exportaciones. Véase el gráfico 4.

2.5 Productos abarcados

10. Al examinar los tipos de productos abarcados por las medidas, puede observarse una ligera modificación durante la pandemia. En 2022, la pandemia de COVID-19 ya no se cita como motivo de las restricciones aplicadas a productos alimenticios y las medidas relativas a los equipos de protección personal y los antisépticos y desinfectantes parecen desempeñar un papel menor en esta etapa. Sin embargo, algunos productos, tales como productos farmacéuticos, dispositivos y equipos médicos, otros suministros médicos, kits para pruebas de COVID-19 y vacunas, parecen estar tan restringidos como en los seis primeros meses de 2020. Esto parece indicar que siguen existiendo penurias mundiales de estos productos.

2.6 Justificaciones de la OMC citadas

11. En el caso de las restricciones y prohibiciones a la exportación que se han notificado en virtud de la Decisión sobre las restricciones cuantitativas, los Miembros han facilitado información sobre su justificación con arreglo a las normas de la OMC. Para justificar la introducción de casi la mitad de las 98 medidas relativas a restricciones cuantitativas notificadas, los Miembros citaron el artículo XI.2 a) y el artículo XX b) del GATT de 1994, que se refieren respectivamente a las prohibiciones o restricciones a las exportaciones aplicadas temporalmente para prevenir o remediar una escasez aguda de productos alimenticios o de otros productos esenciales para la parte exportadora y a las medidas necesarias para proteger la vida y la salud de las personas y de los animales o para preservar los vegetales. Los Miembros citaron exclusivamente el artículo XI.2 a) del GATT de 1994 para el 16% de las medidas. En el resto de los casos se aludió a otros objetivos de política, como la protección de la vida y la salud de las personas o la protección de los intereses esenciales de seguridad, sin mencionar disposiciones específicas de la OMC, o no se dio ninguna justificación. No se dispone de información a este respecto para las 30 medidas extraídas del ejercicio de vigilancia comercial. Véase el gráfico 6.

2.7 Situación actual de las medidas

12. Sobre la base de la información disponible, en marzo de 2022 se puede observar una ligera reducción de las medidas en vigor, en comparación con la situación en octubre de 2021, cuando se publicó la versión anterior del presente informe. Sin embargo, un tercio de las prohibiciones y restricciones a la exportación (el 33%), tanto las notificadas como restricciones cuantitativas como las extraídas de la labor de vigilancia del comercio, sigue en vigor a 25 de marzo de 2022. Las restantes medidas han expirado según se indicó en la notificación inicial (el 39%), o el Miembro pertinente presentó una notificación para informar a los demás Miembros sobre la terminación de la medida (el 28%). Véase el gráfico 7.

3 RESUMEN DE LAS COMUNICACIONES CON FACILIDADES COMERCIALES

13. En el anexo 2 figura un resumen del contenido de todas las comunicaciones con facilidades comerciales introducidas por los Miembros en respuesta a la COVID-19 que se han presentado al Comité de Acceso a los Mercados, así como las facilidades comerciales recopiladas en el contexto del ejercicio de vigilancia del comercio. A diferencia de las prohibiciones y restricciones a la exportación descritas en la sección 2, que se presentaron en cumplimiento de la prescripción de notificación establecida en la Decisión sobre las restricciones cuantitativas, estas comunicaciones han sido presentadas voluntariamente por los Miembros con fines de transparencia.

14. A 25 de marzo de 2022, 14 Miembros habían presentado al Comité de Acceso a los Mercados un total de 26 comunicaciones con 41 facilidades comerciales, es decir, dos comunicaciones más desde la versión anterior del presente informe publicada en octubre de 2021. A fin de facilitar el análisis, y si la información disponible lo permite, se han normalizado algunos de los elementos contenidos en las comunicaciones (por ejemplo, los tipos de medidas) para su comparación. La información adicional recopilada por la Secretaría en el contexto del ejercicio de vigilancia del comercio⁷ contiene otras 128 facilidades comerciales. De ellas, 19 medidas han sido notificadas a otros comités de la OMC, como el Comité de Facilitación del Comercio (14 medidas), el Comité de Prácticas Antidumping (dos medidas), el Comité de Licencias de Importación (una medida) y el Comité de Obstáculos Técnicos al Comercio (una medida).

3.1 Tipos de medidas

15. Las medidas relacionadas con los impuestos encaminadas a reducir el precio de las importaciones esenciales, lo cual aumenta su asequibilidad y disponibilidad, representan algo más de tres cuartos de las facilidades comerciales. Por ejemplo, más del 50% de esas medidas eliminó, eximió o suspendió el pago de los derechos de aduana (aranceles) con respecto a la importación de productos que se consideraban "esenciales" para luchar contra la pandemia de COVID-19 (el 54,6%). Además, varios Miembros eliminaron, eximieron o suspendieron el pago de otros impuestos y/o derechos, como el impuesto sobre el valor añadido, con respecto a esos productos "esenciales" (el 14,8%). Con el fin de proporcionar liquidez a los importadores, algunos Miembros también decidieron aplazar el pago de los aranceles y otros impuestos con respecto a todos los productos importados (el 6% de las medidas).

16. Aparte de las medidas relacionadas con los impuestos, aproximadamente el 20% de las facilidades comerciales tenía por objeto simplificar o agilizar los procedimientos aduaneros, por ejemplo mediante la introducción de procedimientos de despacho de aduana simplificados o acelerados (el 5,5%), tales como el establecimiento de canales verdes para dar prioridad a la importación de productos esenciales, y la simplificación o eliminación de determinados procedimientos (el 14,8%). Por último, aproximadamente el 4,4% de las medidas se inscribirían en otras categorías, como el establecimiento de procedimientos especiales para la importación de donaciones (mercancías de socorro) o el compromiso de abstenerse de imponer prohibiciones o restricciones a la exportación de productos "esenciales". Véase el gráfico 8.

⁷ La sección sobre la COVID-19 de la página web de la OMC incluye una subsección titulada "COVID-19: Medidas que afectan al comercio de mercancías". Véase https://www.wto.org/spanish/tratop_s/covid19_s/trade_related_goods_measure_s.htm.

3.2 Duración de las medidas

17. La mayoría de las facilidades comerciales parece tener carácter temporal. Sin embargo, debe señalarse que en 82 casos la información sobre la duración prevista de la medida es incompleta o no está disponible. En el caso de las medidas para las que los Miembros sí facilitaron información, al parecer la mayoría ha estado en vigor entre 180 y 365 días (es decir, entre seis meses y un año), seguidas de las que estuvieron en vigor hasta seis meses y algunas medidas con una duración superior. La medida con una duración más corta se mantuvo en vigor durante solo nueve días, mientras que la que tiene una duración más larga se prevé que esté en vigor durante 987 días. También cabe mencionar que algunas de las medidas se describieron como facilidades comerciales "permanentes" para promover el comercio de productos "esenciales" en la lucha contra la pandemia de COVID-19. Véase el gráfico 9.

Gráfico 9. Facilidades comerciales en relación con la COVID-19, por duración de las medidas

Fuente: Secretaría de la OMC.

3.3 Productos abarcados

18. Las principales categorías de productos abarcados por las facilidades comerciales parecen ser de naturaleza similar a las de los productos sujetos a las prohibiciones y restricciones a la exportación analizadas en la sección 2. Cuarenta y siete Miembros adoptaron medidas para simplificar la importación de equipos de protección personal, que abarcan las categorías de dispositivos de protección facial y de los ojos (por ejemplo, mascarillas faciales, protectores faciales y gafas [anteojos] protectoras y de seguridad), prendas de vestir de protección y guantes. Les siguen las medidas relativas a los distintos tipos de antisépticos y desinfectantes, incluidos los distintos tipos de alcohol utilizados en la elaboración de esos productos. Resulta interesante que un Miembro de la OMC utilizara la lista indicativa de insumos para las vacunas contra la COVID-19⁸ para definir 14 productos que podían acogerse a la suspensión de los aranceles. Véase el gráfico 10.

3.4 Situación actual

19. Según la información disponible, el 41% de las facilidades comerciales parece haber expirado, mientras que el 15% se mantiene en vigor en la fecha del presente informe. No obstante, no se dispone de información sobre la situación actual de casi el 50% de las medidas incluidas en el conjunto de datos. Véase el gráfico 11.
