CONSEJO DE COOPERACIÓN DE LOS ESTADOS ÁRABES DEL GOLFO

En la reunión celebrada el 9 de junio de 2021, el Consejo de los ADPIC acordó invitar a las organizaciones intergubernamentales que tenían la condición de observador en el Consejo a que actualizaran la información sobre sus programas de cooperación técnica y financiera relacionados con la aplicación del Acuerdo sobre los ADPIC.

En el presente documento se reproduce la información recibida del Consejo de Cooperación de los Estados Árabes del Golfo (CCG) en una comunicación de fecha 16 de agosto de 2021.

1 INTRODUCCIÓN

1. El CCG es una organización intergubernamental integrada por los siguientes Estados miembros: los Emiratos Árabes Unidos, el Reino de Bahrein, el Reino de la Arabia Saudita, Omán, Qatar y el Estado de Kuwait.
 2. De conformidad con el artículo 20 del Acuerdo Económico del CCG, que dispone que "[l]os Estados miembros elaborarán programas que sean de estímulo para las personas con talento y apoyen la innovación y la invención; cooperarán en el ámbito de la propiedad intelectual y elaborarán reglamentos y procedimientos que aseguren la protección de los derechos de propiedad intelectual; y coordinarán sus políticas pertinentes con respecto a otros países, bloques regionales y organizaciones internacionales y regionales", la mayor parte de las actividades de cooperación técnica de la Secretaría General del CCG van dirigidas a sus Estados miembros.
 3. En el presente documento se recoge un informe sobre las principales actividades de cooperación técnica organizadas por la Secretaría General del CCG entre el 1 de septiembre de 2020 y el 1 de septiembre de 2021 y que guardan relación con las cuestiones de propiedad intelectual, a raíz de la invitación formulada por el Presidente del Consejo de los ADPIC a que proporcionara información actualizada sobre esas actividades.
 4. La mayor parte de las actividades de asistencia técnica realizadas por la Secretaría General del CCG durante el período mencionado se han centrado en diversos aspectos concretos relacionados con la propiedad intelectual. Estas actividades revistieron la forma de talleres, formación en el trabajo, adscripciones y apoyo a la participación en conferencias o exposiciones internacionales sobre propiedad intelectual, y parte de ellas se organizaron en cooperación con algunas oficinas nacionales de propiedad intelectual. Las actividades en cuestión se enumeran en el anexo que figura a continuación.
 5. El brote de COVID-19 afectó de una manera u otra a las actividades de cooperación técnica realizadas por la Secretaría General del CCG durante el período considerado.
