1. In its notification AG/FOR/CUB/1 Cuba has informed that there are no export or import restrictions on agricultural products. Imports are subject only to import duties which are indicated in the customs tariff or Schedule IX of tariff concessions (L/4677). Trade is carried out by the foreign-trade enterprises, which operate strictly on commercial criteria and in conformity with the principles enunciated in Article XVII. Phyto-sanitary and veterinary regulations are applied to imports and exports in conformity with the provisions of Article XX of the General Agreement.

2. More detailed comments and explanations, along with format tables, are expected to be provided by Cuba in the near future.
