PROVISIONAL ACCESSION

Note by the Director-General

The arrangements for the provisional accession of the Governments of Iceland and Tunisia will expire on 31 December 1965 and the two Governments have requested an extension of the validity of the arrangements. The Working Party on the Accession of Yugoslavia, after consulting with the delegation of Yugoslavia, agreed to recommend that the Yugoslav Declaration on Provisional Accession and the Decision inviting Yugoslavia to participate in the work of the CONTRACTING PARTIES, which also expire on 31 December 1965, should both be extended for a period of six months. Texts embodying this recommendation are attached for the Council's consideration.

If the attached texts are approved, the Procès-Verbaux could be opened for acceptance, and the decisions submitted to the CONTRACTING PARTIES for adoption.
