Corrigendum

1. FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY

Page 16, paragraph 33

Delete note concerning tariff quotas for tropical wood.

Page 40, paragraph 61 B

Entry against "Federal Republic of Germany" should be marked "1" and qualified by the following footnote:

"1 Applicable without discrimination to imported products and indigenous products."

Page 47

Entry against "Federal Republic of Germany" should be marked "1" and qualified by the following footnote:

"1 Applicable without discrimination to imported products and indigenous products."

2. NORWAY

Page 4

Add the following to the footnote marked "1":

"The Norwegian import restrictions on raw coffee will be abolished as from 1 January 1962."

Page 11, paragraph 25 A(ii)

Delete the existing entry and insert the following:

"Norway maintains import restrictions on soyabean oil, cottonseed oil, groundnut oil and coconut oil".

./.
Delete the existing entry against "Norway" and insert the following:

"stamp tax (for pipe tobacco about 385 per cent of the price on raw tobacco; for cigarettes about 920 per cent of the price on raw tobacco)."

Delete entry against (iii) and its respective footnote.

3. AUSTRIA

Delete existing entry against "Austria" and insert the following:

"Liberalized vis-à-vis GATT countries since 1 July 1961".

Delete existing entry against "Austria" and insert the following:

"Certain types of leather which are liberalized vis-à-vis OECD countries, the United States and Canada have been liberalized vis-à-vis GATT countries, except for artificial leather (T.N.14.10); since 1 July 1961."

Delete existing entry against "Austria" and insert the following:

"Items falling under 97.06A, 97.06B and 97.06C 1 are liberalized only when imported from the OECD countries, the United States and Canada. ('Global quotas' have been established under Article 10 of the EFTA Convention). Items falling under 97.06C 2 have been liberalized vis-à-vis GATT countries since 1 July 1961."