Dear Mr. Mathur,

Further to your letter of 23 July 1980, concerning additional information required for the work of the subgroup on adjustment assistance, I wish to submit to you additional information to be added to the documentation supplied by us on the 9th June 1980.

The liberalisation policy currently applies to textiles imports in the normal course of trade i.e. to products of regular imported by authorised importers. To date, about 1100 firms have been recognised and approved as authorised importers of textiles.

Textiles (except fabrics) are required to be labelled on importation providing full information accessible to the consumer. The same labelling requirement is applied to domestic products.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Shaton
First Secretary
