The Textiles Surveillance Body has received a notification from the United States of a further modification of its bilateral agreement with China, concluded under Article 4 of the MFA. Restraints were agreed on several categories with effect from January 1984.

The TSB, pursuant to its procedures regarding bilateral agreements notified under Article 4, has examined the relevant documentation and is forwarding the text of the notification to participating countries for their information.

1 The original agreement, an agreed visa system and a previous modification are contained in COM.TEX/SB/896, 951 and 1025. At the time of the notification of the agreement China was not a participating country.

2 See COM.TEX/SB/35, Annex B

3 For the TSB's observations on this notification, see COM.TEX/SB/1135

Swing shall apply according to paragraph 5 of the Agreement.

These proposals reflect the views of both sides concerning the understandings reached during these several discussions. The Government of the United States understands that the Government of the People's Republic of China may desire further discussions on the matter of carryover and carry forward. However, until otherwise agreed, paragraph 7 of the Agreement will apply.

If these proposals are acceptable to the Government of the People's Republic of China, this note and the note of the Government of the People's Republic of China of confirmation shall constitute an amendment to the Agreement.

The Embassy takes this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs its highest consideration.
PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA NOTE 1

Washington, 17 June 1985

Mrs. Ann L. Hollick
Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary
Trade and Commercial Affairs
Department of State

Madam

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your note dated 5 June 1985, through your Embassy in Beijing, relating to the proposed amendment to the Textile Agreement between our two countries.

I have the honour to confirm on behalf of the Government of the People's Republic of China that the proposed amendment conforms with the understanding of my government and agree that your note and this note shall constitute an amendment to the Agreement between our two governments.

As your government understands, my government would like to further discuss the matter of carryover and carry forward with respect to these categories.

Accept the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Ambassador of the People's Republic of China
The United States and the People's Republic of China exchanged notes in Washington to effect amendment to the bilateral textile agreement between the two governments. Texts of the notes follow.

UNITED STATES NOTE 2

Washington, 1 July 1985

His Excellency Han Xu
Ambassador of the People's Republic of China
Washington

Excellency

I have the honour to propose, on behalf of my government, that Annex B of the Agreement be amended to include the following specific limit:
