ARRANGEMENT REGARDING INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN TEXTILES

Notification under Article 4:4

Amendments of Bilateral Agreement between the United States and China

The Textiles Surveillance Body received a notification from the United States of further amendments of their bilateral agreement with China. Specific limits were agreed for Categories 438, 359-vests, 361, 369-luggage, 410 and 436 for the 1985, 1986 and 1987 agreement years.

The TSB, pursuant to its procedures regarding bilateral agreements or amendments notified under Article 4, has examined the relevant documentation and is forwarding the notification to participating countries for their information.

1The original agreement, an agreed visa system and previous modifications are contained in COM.TEX/SB/896, 951, 1025 and 1130. At the time of the notification of the agreement, China was not a participating country.

2See COM.TEX/SB/35, Annex B

3For the TSB's observations on this notification see COM.TEX/SB/1150

The United States and the People's Republic of China exchanged notes in Washington to effect amendment to the bilateral textile agreement between the two Governments. Texts of the notes follow.

UNITED STATES NOTE

Washington
October 24, 1985

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles, with annexes, done at Geneva on December 20, 1973, and extended by protocol on December 22, 1981, at Geneva (the Arrangement), and to the Agreement between the People's Republic of China and the United States of America relating to trade in cotton, wool and man-made fiber textiles and textile products, effected by exchange of notes in Beijing on August 19, 1983, as amended (the Agreement). I also refer to recent discussions between representatives of our Governments in Washington, D.C.

I have the honor to propose, on behalf of my Government, that Annex B of the Agreement be amended to include the following specific limit:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Unit</th>
<th>1985</th>
<th>1986</th>
<th>1987</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>438</td>
<td>Dozen</td>
<td>22,000</td>
<td>22,220</td>
<td>22,442</td>
</tr>

If this proposal is acceptable to the Government of the People's Republic of China, this note and the Embassy's note of confirmation shall constitute an amendment to the Agreement.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Acting Secretary of State:

His Excellency,
Han Xu,
Ambassador of the People's Republic of China
Dear Mr. Lamb:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note dated October 24, 1985 relating to the proposed amendment to the Textile Agreement between our two countries.

I have the honor to confirm on behalf of the Government of the People's Republic of China that the proposed amendment conforms with the understanding of my Government and agree that your note and this note shall constitute an amendment to the Agreement between our two countries.

Accept the renewed assurance of my highest consideration.

For the Ambassador of the People's Republic of China:
