Textiles Surveillance Body

ARRANGEMENT REGARDING INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN TEXTILES

Notification under Articles 7 and 8

Extension and amendment of the bilateral agreement between the United States and Nepal

The Textiles Surveillance Body received a notification from the United States of an extension of its agreement with Nepal for the three-year period 1 January 1991 to 31 December 1993, and an amendment affecting the agreement period from 29 August 1990.¹

This notification was made pursuant to the request made by the Textiles Committee, that agreements concluded with non-participants be notified.

The TSB is forwarding the text of the notification to participating countries for their information.

¹The bilateral agreement and a previous amendment are contained in COM.TEX/SB/1179 and 1522.

The United States and Nepal amended their bilateral textile agreement. Texts of the notes follow:

UNITED STATES NOTE

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Government of Nepal and has the honour to refer to the bilateral textile agreement between the Government of the United States and the Government of Nepal effected by an exchange of notes in Kathmandu dated 30 May 1986 and 1 June 1986, as amended and extended. The Embassy has the further honour to refer to consultations held November 5 through 7, 1990 in Washington, D.C.

During the consultations referred to above, ad referendum agreement was reached on several issues as reflected in a Memorandum of Understanding signed by both heads of delegation on 7 November 1990. The full text of that Memorandum of Understanding is an attachment to this note.

The Embassy now proposes that both Governments agree to the provisions of the Memorandum of Understanding. If this is acceptable to the Government of Nepal, this note and a note of confirmation from the Government of Nepal shall constitute an agreement between the two Governments.

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of His Majesty's Government of Nepal the assurances of its highest consideration.

2) The following paragraphs shall be added to the agreement:

A. Officials of the United States and Nepal shall cooperate with each other, subject to their domestic laws and regulations, in preventing circumvention of this agreement, especially in curbing fraudulent practices in transshipment, rerouting, false description, false invoicing or other methods. Both sides shall further assist each other in exchanging relevant documents, reports and other information and shall facilitate other measures needed to ascertain facts related to suspected circumventions of this agreement.

B. Both sides further agree that investigations undertaken at the request of either the United States or Nepal shall be conducted as soon as conveniently possible.

C. Where information available to authorities in Nepal or the United States, as a result of investigations, constitutes evidence that products subject to this agreement are falsely invoiced or traded in circumvention of this agreement wither government may request consultations, with a view to invoke penalties beyond equivalent adjustments of the corresponding agreed levels established under this agreement, as appropriate. Such consultations shall take place and be conducted within 120 days of such request.
3) The visa arrangement shall be amended to include coverage of man-made fibre textiles and apparel products (Categories 600-670), effective 1 January 1991.

4) This memorandum of understanding shall take effect upon exchange of notes between the two governments.
