AGREEMENT

In the form of Exchange of Letters amending the Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Republic of India on trade in textile products

Letter Number One

Sir,

1. I have the honour to refer to the consultations held in Delhi on 4-7 December and in Brussels on 16 December 1991 between our respective delегations for the purpose of amending the Agreement on trade in textile products between the European Economic Community and the Republic of India, initialled on 31 October 1986 and applied since 1 January 1987.

2. As a result of these consultations, both parties agreed to amend Article 18, paragraph 1, of the above Agreement so as to extend the period of application of all the provisions of the Agreement for one more year, i.e. until 31 December 1992. Consequently, the parties also agreed to amend Annex II of the Agreement as regards the quantitative limits for exports from India to the Community of the textile products referred thereto for the year 1992. The modified Annex II is appended to this letter (Appendix 1).

3. The parties also agreed that as regards Article 14, paragraph 3, of the Agreement, the percentage of inter-regional transfers for the year 1992 is fixed at 40 per cent.

It is understood that if as a result of the application of the above percentage serious difficulties, following significant changes in the pattern of trade, occur in certain regions of the Community, both parties shall hold consultations without delay with a view to reviewing the situation.

4. Both parties agreed that this extension of the Agreement shall enter into force on 1 January 1992 and shall remain in force until 31 December 1992. The parties agreed that this Agreement shall be applied provisionally from 1 January 1992.

5. I should be obliged if you would kindly confirm the acceptance of your Government to the foregoing.

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.

AGREEMENT

In the form of Exchange of Letters amending the Agreement between the European Economic Community and the Republic of India on trade in textile products

Letter Number Two

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 16 December 1991, which reads as follows:

"Letter Number One"

I have the honour to confirm that my Government is in agreement with the contents of your letter.

Please accept, Sir, the assurance of my highest consideration.

For the Government of the Republic of India
EXCHANGE OF NOTES

The Directorate-General for External Relations of the Commission of the European Communities presents its compliments to the Mission of the Republic of India to the European Communities and has the honour to refer to the Agreement in textile products between India and the Community initialled on 31 October 1986 and applied since 1 January 1987, as extended by the exchange of letters initialled on 16 December 1991.

The Directorate-General wishes to confirm to the Mission of India that whilst awaiting the completion of the necessary procedures for the conclusion and the coming into force of the extended Agreement, the Community is prepared to allow the provisions of the Agreement to apply de facto from 1 January 1992. This is on the understanding that either party may at any time terminate this de facto application of the extended Agreement provided that 60 days' notice is given.

The Directorate-General for External Relations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Mission of the Republic of India to the European Communities the assurance of its highest consideration.
EXCHANGE OF NOTES

The Mission of the Republic of India to the European Communities presents its compliments to the Directorate-General for External Relations of the Commission of the European Communities and has the honour to refer to the Agreement in textile products negotiated between the Republic of India and the Community, initialled on 31 October 1986 and applied since 1 January 1987, as extended by the exchange of letters initialled on 16 December 1991.

The Mission wishes to inform the Directorate-General that whilst awaiting the completion of the necessary procedures for the conclusion and the coming into force of the extended Agreement, the Government of the Republic of India is prepared to allow the provisions of the extended Agreement to apply de facto from 1 January 1992 if the Community is disposed to do likewise. This is on the understanding that either party may at any time terminate this de facto application of the extended Agreement provided that 60 days' notice is given.

The Mission of the Republic of India to the European Communities avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Directorate-General for External Relations the assurance of its highest consideration.
