1. Delegations representing the Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of India met on 12 and 13 December 1991 in New Delhi to discuss the future of the Memorandum of Understanding between the Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of India relating to the exports from India of certain textiles and textile products for import into Canada. (MOU)

2. The two delegations agreed that the MOU should be amended and extended for a further year to 31 December 1992. They discussed a proposal for the amendments and the extension and agreed to present it to their respective authorities.

3. The two delegations further agreed that the amended MOU should be applied from 1 January 1992, pending its ratification by the two Governments.

4. The two delegations undertook to communicate the decision of their authorities by 15 January 1992.

Dear Mr. Saint-Jacques,

I have received a message from Parameswaran Iyer, Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, New Delhi, informing me about the consultations held in New Delhi on 12 and 13 December 1991 regarding the future of the MOU on Textiles between our two countries which is due to expire on 31.12.1991. I am informed that both the delegations agreed that the MOU should be extended for another year till 31.12.1992 subject to ratification by the two Governments. I am happy to inform you that the Government of India has ratified the MOU amended and extended for a further year to December 1992 as agreed upon in the Agreed Record of Discussions signed at New Delhi on 13 December 1991. We shall be grateful if you could kindly communicate to us the approval of the Canadian Government to the MOU.

Yours sincerely,

(Himshal Som)
