UNITED STATES AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA
TERMINATE TEXTILE AGREEMENT

The United States and the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic agreed to terminate the bilateral agreement on trade in cotton textiles between the two countries by exchange of notes in Prague. Texts of the notes follow:

CZECHOSLOVAK SOCIALIST REPUBLIC NOTE

The Federal Ministry of Foreign Affairs presents its compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America and, with reference to negotiations held between both sides in this matter, has the honour to advise that the Government of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic agrees that the mutual trade in textiles between the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic and the United States of America be carried out on the basis of the following Understanding:

1. The validity of the Agreement on Trade in Cotton Textiles between the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic and the United States of America, signed on 29 August 1969, as amended, shall be terminated upon entry into force of this Understanding.

2. The Czechoslovak Socialist Republic and the United States of America will continue in their mutual trade in cotton, wool and man-made fibre textiles and apparel products.

Should the export of these products from the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic to the United States of America develop in such a manner so as to cause or threaten to cause in the United States of America problems of market disruption as defined in the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles signed on 20 December 1973 in Geneva, the Government of the United States of America may request consultations with the Government of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic. The Government of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic shall respond to such a request within thirty days and within the next sixty days it shall take part in consultations (unless otherwise agreed) in order to arrive at an early solution on mutually advantageous terms on the basis not less favourable than that provided by the Arrangement Regarding International Trade in Textiles of 20 December 1973.
The Federal Ministry of Foreign Affairs proposes that if the Government of the United States of America agrees to the provisions of this Note, this Note and the Embassy's reply to that effect constitute an agreement of the two Governments, which will enter into force on the date of the Embassy's Note in reply.

The Federal Ministry of Foreign Affairs avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the United States of America the assurances of its highest consideration.
