ARRANGEMENT REGARDING INTERNATIONAL TRADE
IN COTTON TEXTILES

Bilateral Agreement Between the United States and the Republic of China

Addendum

Attached is the text of a United States note extending for an additional period of four months its bilateral agreement with the Republic of China concerning trade in cotton textiles.¹ The text of this note has been transmitted to the Director-General by the United States mission for notification to the Cotton Textiles Committee.

31 August 1971

Excellency:

I have the honour to refer to the cotton textile agreement between our two Governments effected by exchange of notes on 12 October 1967, as amended and extended by exchange of notes on 22 December 1970 and 29 June 1971. As a result of discussions between representatives of our two Governments, I have the honour to propose that the aforementioned agreement be further amended and extended as provided in the following paragraphs:

A. Paragraph 1 is amended by changing the first sentence to read as follows: "This agreement shall extend through 31 December 1971."

B. The last sentence of paragraph 7 and sub-paragraph (d) of paragraph 15 are deleted.

¹COT/8/Add.5 and COT/178 and Add.l

His Excellency
James C.H. Shen,
Chinese Ambassador.
If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to your Government, this note and Your Excellency's note of acceptance on behalf of the Government of the Republic of China shall constitute an amendment and extension of the cotton textile agreement effected by exchange of notes 12 October 1967, as amended and extended by exchange of notes of 22 December 1970 and 29 June 1971.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Secretary of State:

(Signed) Julius L. Katz
