ARRANGEMENT REGARDING INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN COTTON TEXTILES

Agreement between the United States and the United Arab Republic

Addendum

Attached is the text of the notes constituting a bilateral agreement between the United States and the United Arab Republic, which extends through 31 March 1968, controls on the exportation of cotton textiles from the United Arab Republic to the United States.

The text of this Agreement has been transmitted to the Director-General by the United States mission for notification to the Cotton Textiles Committee.
Sir,

It will be appreciated if you, in your capacity as representative of the interests of the Government of the United Arab Republic, will convey the following information to that Government:

"The Government of the United States of America refers to the agreement concerning trade in cotton textiles between the United States and the United Arab Republic, effected by an exchange of notes on 4 December 1963, hereinafter referred to as the 1963 Agreement, and further refers to the agreement between the two Governments, effected by exchange of notes between the Secretary of State and the Ambassador of India, representing the interest of the United Arab Republic, which provides for the continued regulation of the trade in cotton textiles through 31 December 1967."

"The Government of the United States proposes that for the period from 1 January 1968 through 31 March 1968, the trade in cotton textiles between the United Arab Republic and the United States shall continue to be regulated in accordance with the terms applicable to the corresponding quarter of the last agreement year under the 1963 Agreement.

"If this proposal is acceptable to the Government of the United Arab Republic, the note of 28 December 1967, from the Secretary of State of the United States to the Chargé d'Affaires ad interim and the Chargé's reply stating that the Government of the United Arab Republic has accepted the proposal and has requested that information regarding such acceptance be communicated to the Secretary of State shall constitute an agreement between the Government of the United States and the Government of the United Arab Republic. In the absence of diplomatic relations between these two Governments, such other diplomatic channels as may be established will be utilized when appropriate under this Agreement."

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my high consideration.

For the Secretary of State

Anthony M. Solomon

The Honourable Dr. Purnendu Kumar Banerjee,
Chargé d'Affaires ad interim of India.

Note No. 2

28 December 1967

Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to your note of 28 December 1967 in which you request that, in my capacity as representative of the interests of the Government of the United Arab Republic, I convey the following information to that Government:

(See Note No: 1)

At the request of the Government of the United Arab Republic, I have the honour to inform you that the foregoing proposal is acceptable to that Government. Accordingly, your note of 28 December 1967, and this reply constitute an agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the United Arab Republic.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

(P.K. Banerjee)
Chargé d'Affaires ad interim

The Honourable Dean Rusk,
The Secretary of State,
Washington, D.C.
