Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to the Agreement on Trade in Cotton Textiles effected by an exchange of notes in Washington on 15 April 1964 as amended (hereinafter referred to as the Agreement) and the notes exchanged between our Governments on 30 December 1966\(^1\) (hereinafter referred to as the Extension) extending the Agreement to 31 March 1967. I have the honour to propose that the Extension be replaced as of the date of your reply to this note as follows:

1. For the period from 1 October 1966 through 30 April 1967 trade in cotton textiles between our two countries shall continue to be regulated in accordance with the existing arrangements under the Agreement. With respect to paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Agreement the limits for this period shall be 116 2/3\% of those specified in these paragraphs for 1 April 1966 to 30 September 1966.

2. The quantities exported during this period will be charged against any levels that may be applicable after the expiration of this Agreement as appropriate depending upon the date on which such levels go into effect.

If these proposals are acceptable to your Government, this note and your note accepting these proposals on behalf of the Government of India shall constitute an Agreement between our Governments.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
