Excellency:

I have the honour to refer to the Agreement between our two Governments concerning trade in cotton textiles effected by an exchange of notes dated 16 July 1963, as amended.

In view of the special circumstances discussed by the representatives of our two Governments, I propose that, on a one-time basis, cotton yarn in categories 1 through 4 in the total amount of one million pounds may be exported from Spain to the United States during the period beginning 1 July 1966, and extending through 31 December 1966, without being charged against the limitations specified in the Agreement, as amended.

If this proposal is acceptable to the Government of Spain, this note and your Excellency's note of acceptance on behalf of the Government of Spain shall constitute an amendment to the Agreement between our two Governments concerning trade in cotton textiles.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
