Pursuant to the revised procedures for review meetings circulated in the communication from the Chairman of the Council dated 30 April 1993 (L/7208), the following are outlines of the main points to be raised by H.E. Mr. Wade Armstrong (New Zealand) and Mr. Peter Palečka (Czech Republic) at the review of Hong Kong to be held on 5-6 October 1994.

It is recalled that discussants act in their personal capacity.

(a) Ambassador Wade Armstrong
1. Hong Kong's potential for trade diversification.
2. Technical co-operation with China in trade-related areas.
3. Eligibility criteria in industrial support and training schemes.
4. Future of the reserve-stock requirements for rice, frozen meat and poultry.
5. Level of tariff bindings.

(b) Mr. Peter Palečka
1. Growth impulses resulting from closer integration with the South Chinese economy.
2. Implications of the Uruguay Round for Hong Kong's trade régime.
3. Prospects for further economic deregulation.
4. No need for competition law?
