UNITED STATES - STANDARDS FOR REFORMULATED AND CONVENTIONAL GASOLINE

Recourse to Article XXIII: 2 by Venezuela

Communication by Venezuela

The following Communication, dated 9 January 1995, has been received from the Permanent Mission of Venezuela, with the request that it be circulated to the contracting parties to GATT.

Further to Communication No. E2.7/1748 from this Permanent Mission, dated 20 December 1994, I should like to inform you that the Government of Venezuela has decided to suspend definitively the dispute settlement procedure initiated by Venezuela under Article XXIII of GATT 1947, concerning the United States Law on "Regulation of Fuels and Fuel Additives - Standards for Reformulated and Conventional Gasoline". I should also like to state that, in this connection, Venezuela reserves all the rights to which it is entitled under the World Trade Organization.
