The remarks of the representative of the United States appearing on Page 6 should read as follows:

Lines 13 through 17 should read:

"Mr. LEDDY (United States of America) said that although he had not yet received instructions from his Government he could say with reasonable certainty that it could not enter into formal negotiations during the first half of this year. Its position during the second half of the year would not be clear until July. With respect to informal negotiations, he felt that while exploratory discussions might be a possibility, it was doubtful whether even such discussions would be possible until the second half of the year."
