GATT Study on Trends in United States Trade Published

Trends in United States Merchandise Trade 1953-1970, latest in the series "GATT Studies in International Trade"¹, has just been published by the GATT secretariat.

An introductory chapter reviews the main features of developments in United States trade during the period 1953-1970. Subsequent chapters are concerned with the development of trade and of the United States share in world markets, by broad commodity groups (agriculture, other primary products and manufactured products). Also examined is the rôle of trade in the balance of payments, and United States direct investment abroad and merchandise trade. The study includes twenty-two statistical tables; a note on sources and methods is appended.

Trends in United States Merchandise Trade 1953-1970 is published in English, French and Spanish language editions, and may be ordered (price US$3.00 or Sw F 12.00) from the GATT secretariat, Villa Le Bocage, Palais des Nations, 1211 Geneva 10, Switzerland.

¹"Trends in United States Merchandise Trade 1953-1970" is the third study in this series. Previously published: "Industrial Pollution Control and International Trade" (US$1.50 or Sw F 6.00) and "Japan's Economic Expansion and Foreign Trade 1955 to 1970" (US$2.00 or Sw F 8.00).