On page 2, paragraph 3, the statement of Mr. Leo Tuominen should read as follows:

"before the war Finland exported about 900 tons of cheese to the United States out of a total export of 6,800 tons. But although the total post-war exports of cheese had risen to about 8,000 tons, the exports to the United States, on the contrary, had decreased."