A consultation with France concerning the quantitative restrictions which it applies on imports from the dollar area opened on 4 April. France has ceased to resort to the provisions of GATT which enabled it to use such restrictions on balance-of-payments grounds.

This consultation was requested by the United States, pursuant to Article XXII of GATT.

In addition, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Israel are taking part in the consultation regarding products of interest to them.