Torquay Protocol: Extension of Time for signing granted

At the request of certain governments the Contracting Parties have agreed to extend the time limit for signing the Torquay Protocol. Under the terms of the Torquay Protocol the last day for signing was October 21, 1951.

The following extensions of time were granted:

Contracting parties:
- Brazil          to 31 December 1951
- Chile           to 31 December 1951
- Denmark         to 31 December 1951
- Nicaragua       to 31 December 1951
- United Kingdom  to 31 December 1951

Acceding governments:
- Korea           to 31 March 1952
- Philippines     to 22 May 1952

The Contracting Parties also considered a request by the government of Uruguay for an extension of time for signing both the Annecy Protocol and the Torquay Protocol and agreed to afford an extension of time until 30 April 1952 for Uruguay to sign these Protocols.
