The United Kingdom authorities have informed the GATT secretariat that with effect from 1 August 1961, imports into the United Kingdom from the dollar area of canned fruit (other than canned apples and canned citrus) and certain alcoholic beverages will be freed from control.

In addition, as from 1 July 1961, a global quota for imports of watch cases has been established.