In paragraph 2, page 2, of press release GATT/602 it was stated that "On 1 July 1961, the Austrian Government also took steps to reduce the element of discrimination in its restrictive system". It should be noted that, although this statement is included in a paragraph which deals with dollar discrimination, these Austrian measures relate in fact to restrictions applying to all GATT countries, Austria having already previously removed all discriminatory restrictions against the dollar area.