GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

PUBLICATION OF PROTOCOL EMBODYING THE RESULTS OF THE 1960-61 TARIFF CONFERENCE

When the Final Act Authenticating the Results of the 1960-61 Tariff Conference was signed at Geneva on 16 July 1962, it was indicated that the Protocol embodying the concessions granted would be made public on 13 August.1

The volume which is published today sets out (a) the Text of the Final Act, (b) the Text of the Protocol, and (c) Annexes containing the Schedules of concessions granted by the following:

Austria
Benelux (Belgium, Luxemburg, Kingdom of the Netherlands)
Canada
Chile
Czechoslovakia
Denmark
European Economic Community
Finland
France
Federal Republic of Germany
Haiti
India
Italy
Japan
New Zealand
Federation of Nigeria
Norway
Pakistan
Peru
Sweden
Swiss Confederation
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland
United States of America

As was stated when the Final Act was signed (see press release GATT/703) there were some negotiations which, while in a final stage, could not be completed in time for inclusion in the Protocol which is published today. The concessions resulting from such negotiations will be embodied in a Supplementary Protocol which will be published at a later date.
