The Federal German authorities have informed the GATT secretariat that imports of the following products have been liberalized with effect from 1 January 1963: Preserved bananas in containers of less than 5 kgs.; tyre cord fabrics of artificial or synthetic filaments; épingle or frisé of cotton; knitted underwear of cotton; outer garments of cotton terry towelling for men and boys; outer garments of cotton terry towelling and other outer garments of artificial filaments for women, girls and infants; handkerchiefs of tulles, lace and of silk; shawls, scarves etc. of silk; binoculars with prisms.