GATT Liberalization Communiqué No. 85

FRANCE ANNOUNCES FURTHER LIBERALIZATION OF IMPORTS

The French authorities have informed the GATT secretariat that as from 2 July 1963 a further list of products has been liberalized when imported from GATT Member countries. The list includes Portland cement; fireworks; sensitized paper; certain cellulose products; rubberized clothing; carded or combed wool; linen and ramie; woollen yarns; cotton yarn; man-made fibres and yarns therof; certain cotton woven fabrics; synthetic and artificial fibre thread; jute thread; twine and cordage; specified ladies' underwear; tents and camping goods; iron or steel pins; specified items of cutlery; certain refrigerating equipment; certain generators and transformers; miners' safety lamps; reading glasses, telescopes and other optical instruments; certain precision measuring instruments; brooms and brushes; fountain pens, including ball-point pens, and pencils.

END