1. The Secretary-General of the United Nations has advised that the Torquay Protocol has been signed by the following contracting parties:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contracting Party</th>
<th>Date of Signature</th>
<th>Date of Application of the Schedule</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>New Zealand (Schedule XIII)</td>
<td>12 October</td>
<td>11 November</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Australia (Schedule I)</td>
<td>18 October</td>
<td>17 November</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Italy (Schedule XXVII)</td>
<td>18 October</td>
<td>17 November</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. The amendment to Article XXVIII entered into force on 18 October for all governments which have signed the Torquay Protocol, namely:

- Australia
- Austria (on 19 Oct.)
- Belgium
- Canada
- Ceylon
- Cuba
- Czechoslovakia
- Dominican Republic
- Finland
- France
- Germany
- Greece
- Haiti
- Italy
- Liberia
- Luxembourg
- Netherlands
- New Zealand
- Norway
- Peru
- Southern Rhodesia
- Sweden
- Turkey
- United States.

The entry into force of these schedules is subject to any action that may be taken under paragraph 4 of the Torquay Protocol.