Turkey should be added to the list of governments which have submitted statements in response to GATT/CP/93.

After page 20: Insert the following:

"TURKEY"

"IMPORT RESTRICTIONS"

"Import restrictions for social, moral, health or security reasons apply to a few classes of commodities, including sodium chloride, white pepper, arms and ammunition, drugs, foreign lottery tickets, products with a fraudulent mark of origin, etc.

"EXPORT RESTRICTIONS"

"A few commodities, which are in short supply or which are strategic materials, or products the export of which to the dollar area are to be increased in the interests of currency resources, are subject to control measures made effective through export licences. The products are: tobacco, chromium ore, copper, manganese ore, zinc-bearing lead ore, butter, olive oil, pistachio nuts, greasy wool and opium.

"In addition, a prohibition is applied for the same reasons, or pursuant to legislation in force prior to accession to the General Agreement, to the export of angora goats, tobacco seeds, narcotic drugs, waste from copper, lead, etc., walnut wood, mules, precious metals, vine seedlings, etc."