The second sentence of Mr. Sveinbjörnsson's (Denmark) statement should read as follows:

"With respect to the remarks of the United States representative that his Government would be prepared, if necessary to enter into consultations with other contracting parties, Mr. Sveinbjörnsson said that he hoped that what Mr. Thorp had had in mind was not that the United States would try to solve the whole question simply by offering somewhat higher quotas to countries. Some countries might perhaps be tempted to accept such a solution. The Danish delegation had not, as others had, brought into this discussion the question of the basis of the quotas, because Mr. Sveinbjörnsson felt that nothing short..."
