Tariff Negotiations Working Party

Preparation of the Schedules of Tariff Negotiations

CORRIGENDUM

Paragraph 2. Translation.

Insert, after the first sentence, the following:

"In order to assist delegations the Secretariat has acquired English and French texts of Customs Tariffs prepared by the International Customs Tariffs Bureau of Brussels; these are available to delegations by application to Mr. G. Maggio, Room 8, Hotel Verdun."

The last clause of this paragraph, in parenthesis, shall read:

"(For technical and security reasons, it is proposed to limit delegations to five copies in each language of the schedules of other countries and ten in each language of their own.)"

Production of Schedules to the General Agreement (page 4)

Paragraph 6.

The first sentence in this paragraph shall read:

"The heading 'Part I' should be used in every schedule, including those of countries which have no preferential tariffs and of those which, having preferential tariffs, have not made concessions affecting them; in either case, Part I should be followed by a separate sheet headed 'Part II' with the word 'NIL' in the middle of the page."
