"Mr. WILLOUGHBY (United States), welcomed the initiative taken by UNESCO in this matter and supported the proposal to set up a working party. He referred to the fact that domestic procedural requirements under the Trade Agreements Act would limit negotiations by the United States at Annecy to the lists of commodities on which the United States would consider granting tariff concessions which were made public on November 5 and December 17, 1948, but the United States would be glad to consider the views of UNESCO as they relate to items already on the lists."
