Corrigendum to the Summary Record of the Third Meeting of the Tariff Negotiations Committee

Page 7, line 4 of Mr. Willoughby's remarks.

Delete the following: "but only to seek a solution which would promote international trade and facilitate the removal of barriers as far as practicable. The United States delegation would defer to the judgment of the majority. As regards the date itself, it would prefer January 1, 1951, for the reasons of legislative procedure which he had previously explained," and insert: "but only to seek a solution which would offer the greatest stability to the program of reducing trade barriers. The United States delegation would be glad, however, to defer to the judgment of the majority and to associate itself with the views expressed in favor of a single date. With regard to the date itself, as had been previously explained, the United States would prefer January 1, 1951, because of procedural requirements under the Trade Agreements Act."