Page 5, paragraphs 5, 6 and 7

Mr. ALVAREZ CINA's remarks should read as follows:

"asked whether the acceptance of his proposals was made subject to the receipt of instructions from only such governments which required them or whether a postponement of the decisions was being requested in order that the details of the question could be studied. If it were the former, as he understood it to be, the inclusion of this 1939 treaty between neighbouring countries could be approved, reserving to those delegations which had announced their intention of consulting their governments the right to propose reconsideration of this matter in case they found reasons of any kind to oppose the decision."

Mr. CITUDAL's remarks should read as follows:

"suggested that the proposal be accepted provisionally by those delegations unable now to give definitive approval, as suggested by the Uruguayan delegate."

The CHAIRMAN'S remarks should read as follows:

"The CHAIRMAN proposed that - while retaining the two reservations made owing to lack of instructions from their respective governments - Annex C relating to Colombian preferences be deleted and the following words inserted in the Protocol (paragraph 1 (d)) "existing between Colombia, Venezuela and Ecuador and those existing between Uruguay and Paraguay."