EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Second Session

Sub-Committee I on the International Court of Justice.

Draft Amendment to Article 96 of the Charter, submitted by the French Delegation.

Add the following paragraph to Article 96:

"Without prejudice to the procedure provided for in the present Chapter, the Member States agree that any Member may bring before the International Court of Justice claims against one or more other Members for financial compensation, in reparation of injuries which such Member may regard itself as having sustained in consequence of action taken by such other Member or Members in implementation of the provisions of the present Charter."
