Certified true copies of the above agreements negotiated under the Multilateral Trade Negotiations have been sent to the Governments of the contracting parties and other participants in the MTN. An additional copy has been sent to all permanent missions in Geneva.

Printed copies - in a photo-offset edition - of the above agreements are now available. Two copies are being sent to each contracting party and each participant in the MTN. Additional copies can be ordered by delegations, if they so wish, at half the price indicated on the publications.

Printed copies of the other agreements negotiated under the Multilateral Trade Negotiations will be despatched as soon as they are available.
