SWEDEN

The Swedish import restrictions which still remain in force are all permitted under the terms on which the Swedish Government is applying provisionally the General Agreement, that is under the Annecy Protocol of 10 October 1949. Consequently Sweden has nothing to report in answer to question 2(a)(i). The remaining restrictions - applied in accordance with question 2(a)(ii) - relate to the following commodities:

(1) ex 03.01 salmon, cod, herring (except sprats) and scrapfish, fresh, chilled or frozen ex 03.01 fillets of herring and mackerel, fresh, chilled or frozen ex 03.02 baltic herring, certain other herrings and mackerel, salted, ling, dried ("spillanga") ex 35.02 ovalbumin, other than liquid

(2) ex 02.01 meat of horses and cattle, pork, fresh, chilled or frozen 02.02 dead poultry and edible offals thereof (except liver), fresh, chilled or frozen ex 02.03 poultry liver (except goose liver), fresh, chilled, frozen or salted ex 02.06 pork, salted, dried or smoked 04.02 milk and cream, preserved, concentrated or sweetened ex 04.05 eggs not in shell, egg yolks ex 11.08 starches
    ex 16.02 pork and poultry meat, preserved or prepared, preserved pork and beans, in airtight containers ex 18.06 icecream powder and pudding powder, containing cocoa ex 35.02 ovalbumin, liquid.
It should be noted that items under (2) are subject to licences except when imported from the OEEC countries, the sterling area, the Belgian, Dutch, French, Italian, Portuguese and Spanish currency areas, Finland, Yugoslavia, Guinea, Indonesia, Iraq and Somalia included.

In this connexion it may be recalled that Sweden - in accordance with the proposal put forward in the Intersessional Committee in April 1958 - notified the GATT secretariat in October 1958 of the legislation for which reservations might be made in case the General Agreement is ratified in accordance with the provisions of the resolution of 7 March 1955 (cf. L/905 of 5 November 1958).
