The United States Government informed the secretariat on 19 March 1962 that the Tariff Commission had recommended to the President on 28 February 1962 that the existing duty on straight dressmakers' or common pins should be increased from 20 per cent to 35 per cent ad valorem (cf. document L/1747).

The secretariat has now been informed by the United States Government that the President has decided not to accept the Tariff Commission recommendation.
