According to information received by the secretariat the following countries began the implementation of the tariff reductions resulting from the Kennedy Round on 1 January 1968:

- Australia
- New Zealand
- South Africa
- Austria
- Peru
- Switzerland
- Canada
- Poland (import commitment)
- United States
- Ireland
- Portugal
-

The following countries will begin the implementation on 1 July 1968:

- Denmark
- Israel
- Sweden
- European Economic Community
- Japan
- Trinidad and Tobago
- Finland
- Norway
- United Kingdom
-

The Government of Czechoslovakia has indicated that the implementation will begin as soon as the necessary legal formalities have been fulfilled, but not later than 1 July 1968.

Argentina put its full tariff reductions into force on its accession to GATT on 11 October 1967.

The Governments of Brazil, India and Jamaica have indicated that the implementation of the Kennedy Round results form part of budget proposals now before Parliament. As soon as these have been approved, the date of implementation will be made known.

As the schedule of Malawi only contains bindings at existing level, the question of implementation does not arise.

No indication of the date of implementation has yet been received from the following countries:

- Chile
- Korca
- Turkey
- Dominican Republic
- Spain
- Yugoslavia
- Iceland
-

The dates for advance implementation of Kennedy Round tariff reductions on products of export interest to developing countries may in some cases be different from the dates indicated above. Full information on advance implementation is contained in document L/2862 and Addenda.