GENEVA (1967) PROTOCOL

SCHEDULE XII - INDIA

PART I

Most-Favoured-Nation Tariff

Add the following note at the end of Part I:

"The rates of duty specified in the fourth column for the products described in column two (hereinafter referred to as the final rate), shall be effective from 1.1.1972. The rates for such products which shall be effective during the first eighteen months after the beginning of rate reduction on July 1, 1968, and the two years thereafter shall not exceed the final rate therefor by more than 60 per cent, 40 per cent and 20 per cent respectively, of the difference between the base rate and the final rate."

PART II

Preferential Tariff

Add the following note at the end of Part II:

"For the products mentioned in this Part of the Schedule, the difference between the rates of duty specified in the third and fourth column against each of them shall be completely eliminated by the 1st January 1972. The margins of difference between the rates of duty in the two columns for the products contained in this Part of the Schedule during the first eighteen months after the beginning of rate reduction on July 1, 1968 and the two years thereafter shall not be more than 60 per cent, 40 per cent and 20 per cent respectively of the difference between the rates of duty mentioned in the two columns in this Part of the Schedule."
